Day 1: Arrival in Iguazu falls and transfer from airport to your hotel. We spend the afternoon on a tour of Argentinean side of the falls. The falls are actually a group of 275 separate waterfalls at the intersection of the Brazilian, Argentinean and Paraguayan border. We return to the hotel where we spend the night.

Day 2: Today we visit the Brazilian side of falls in the morning. We hear the deafening roar of 5000 cubic metres of water per second thundering down. The falls are 4 times bigger than Niagara falls and possibly only comparable with Victoria Falls in Zimbabwe. After the tour return to the hotel for the night.

Day 3: Transfer and return to airport for your onward flight.
