Day 1: Meeting you at the airport in Puerto Montt we begin with a city tour of the capital of the Lake District. From Angelmo we continue on to the picturesque German town of Puerto Varas where we stay the night.

Day 2: In the morning we set out on a half-day excursion to the lakeside town of Frutillar. During the journey we will have a beautiful view of the impressive Lake Llanquihue and its backdrop of snow-capped volcanoes.

Day 3: Travelling past Lago Llanquihue we enjoy breathtaking views of the volcanoes Osorno and Calbuco. We continue over the Perez Rosales Pass and into Argentina. On the Argentinean side of mountains we take a ferry across Lago Frías. We then cross Lago Nahuel Huapi.

Day 4: Day to be spent at your leisure with time to explore Bariloche and its surroundings.

Day 5: After breakfast we set out by public bus from Bariloche taking in the famed "Route of the Seven Lakes". This is a tremendous drive through natural Patagonian wilderness. There are only a few small settlements, mostly for rangers who tend to the National Parks. In the afternoon we arrive in San Martín de los Andes.

Day 6: Today we set out in the early morning passing over the Andes back to Chile through the Tromen Pass. In the evening we arrive in picturesque Pucon located at the feet of the Volcano Villarrica.

Day 7: Free time to explore Pucon. You can have an active day here climbing the local volcano, hiking in the National Park Huerquehue or relaxing.

Day 8: Transfer to airport after breakfast.
