Day 1: Arrival in Ushuaia, one of the world's southernmost cities. This stunning location is the home of a working passenger port, gateway to the Antarctic and Patagonia. Transfer to hotel.

Day 2: Train to the "End of the World". Today we take a stunning train ride along one of Argentina's last remaining narrow gauge tracks on the Ferrocarril Austral Fuegino. We pass spectacular waterfalls, glaciers, rugged mountain scenery and spectacular lakes before returning to Ushuaia.

Day 3: Today we take a spectacular half day cruise along the famed "Beagle Channel". Here we get a chance to see myriads of seabirds and gain an impressive view of the Martial Glacier. We return to Ushuaia where you are transferred to the airport.

Please note this itinerary can be done in reverse, depending on your schedule. This will be a perfect variation for those finishing a Patagonia trip or starting an Antarctic adventure!
